BOX CRICKET HANDBOOK

CSL Box Cricket is designed for maximum excitement, fast gameplay, and pure team spirit.

It's not just about power-hitting – it's about coordination, fair play, and representing your company with pride on the field.

Team Composition

- Each team consists of 6 players (including 1 wicketkeeper).
- Minimum 5 players required to start the match.
- Each team can register up to 8 players (2 substitutes).
- Only registered players are allowed to participate.
- Any player found playing for multiple teams will result in team disqualification.

Match Format

- Each innings consists of 6 overs per side.
- Underarm bowling only.
- Each bowler can bowl a maximum of 2 overs.
- Matches follow a league-cum-knockout format.
- A new, clearly visible ball will be used for each match.

Batting Rules

- Only one batsman bats at a time; last-man rule does not apply.
- Runs are scored as per wall/zone markings (as defined at the venue):
 - Side Wall (along the ground): 1 Run
 - Direct Side Wall (on the full): 2 Runs
 - Back Wall (along ground): 3 Runs
 - Back Wall (on the full): 6 Runs
 - Ceiling / Roof Hit: Dead Ball (No Run)
- No running between wickets. All scoring is based on wall contacts.
- Catch off wall rebound = Out.
- If the ball hits the back net / wall and rebounds into fielder's hands before touching the ground = Out.
- Overthrows are not counted.

Bowling & Fielding Rules

- Bowling must be underarm with a smooth, single-handed motion.
- No jerky or side-arm action; umpire's discretion applies.
- Wide ball: Any ball outside the marked line = 1 run + extra delivery.

No ball:

- Overarm bowling
- Ball bouncing before reach to striker's line
- Full toss above waist height
- A free hit is awarded after a no-ball.
- Fielders must remain inside designated boundaries during delivery.
- Catches off the side or top nets (if allowed by venue) follow local ground rules.
